

Khalil & Kir win the Lanarkshire Social Doubles Tournament - October 2022

By Lanarkshire Badminton

There were 14 players (7 doubles pairs) in total who played against as part of the 2022 Lanarkshire Social Doubles Tournament - October 2022 which took place at Larkhall Leisure Centre.

It was Arslan Khalil & Kiran Kir who took 1st place with seven out of seven wins. It was tough opening match for Khalil & Kir who were taken to 3 sets against local Lanarkshire player Jack Shannon who teamed up with Inverclyde's Andrew Campbell winning 11-15, 15-12, 15-7. They were then able to overcome regular duo Roel Jr & Callum Stuart 15-7, 15-13 who came into the tournament as strong contenders.

Meanwhile within these opening round of matches, Yohann Franz & Stuart Swan managed to take the win 15-9, 15-9 against Martin Carlin & Christopher McAllister as well Stephen Jack & Anup Nambiar managing to overcome Emma Green & Calum Kennedy partnership 15-9 and edging it in the second set 15-14. It seemed that the alternative scoring format of 1 set to 15 points provided shorter rallies and faster games!

A well done all the players who took part and a special thank you to our Tournament Convenor Frank Turnbull for organising the tournament
